1. Conditions are good in the Bhamo-Myitkyina area of Burma and the Government of Burma is maintaining control. There are no insurgents, but there is occasional looting by the Chinese Nationalist guerrillas along the Bhamo-Myitkyina road. It is rumored that when the Nationalists are captured or killed, new American carbines are found in their possession.
2. A local long-time acquaintance said that Nagas are now being recruited by the Burma Army.
